

How to Effectively Distribute and Leverage Resources to Support Teaching and Learning

STENETTE BYRD III, ED.D.

PAMELA CONNOR, ED.S.

KIPP ROGERS, PH.D.

EQUALITY

EQUITY

Workshop Description

Through technology-laden activities and lively discussion, this session will address the question, “How do you effectively distribute and leverage resources to support teaching and learning?” Strategic allocation and leveraging resources to support equitable access to learning opportunities is becoming a major part of educational policy. Join us in discussing ways in which equitable distribution practices can be shaped.

Video Presentation

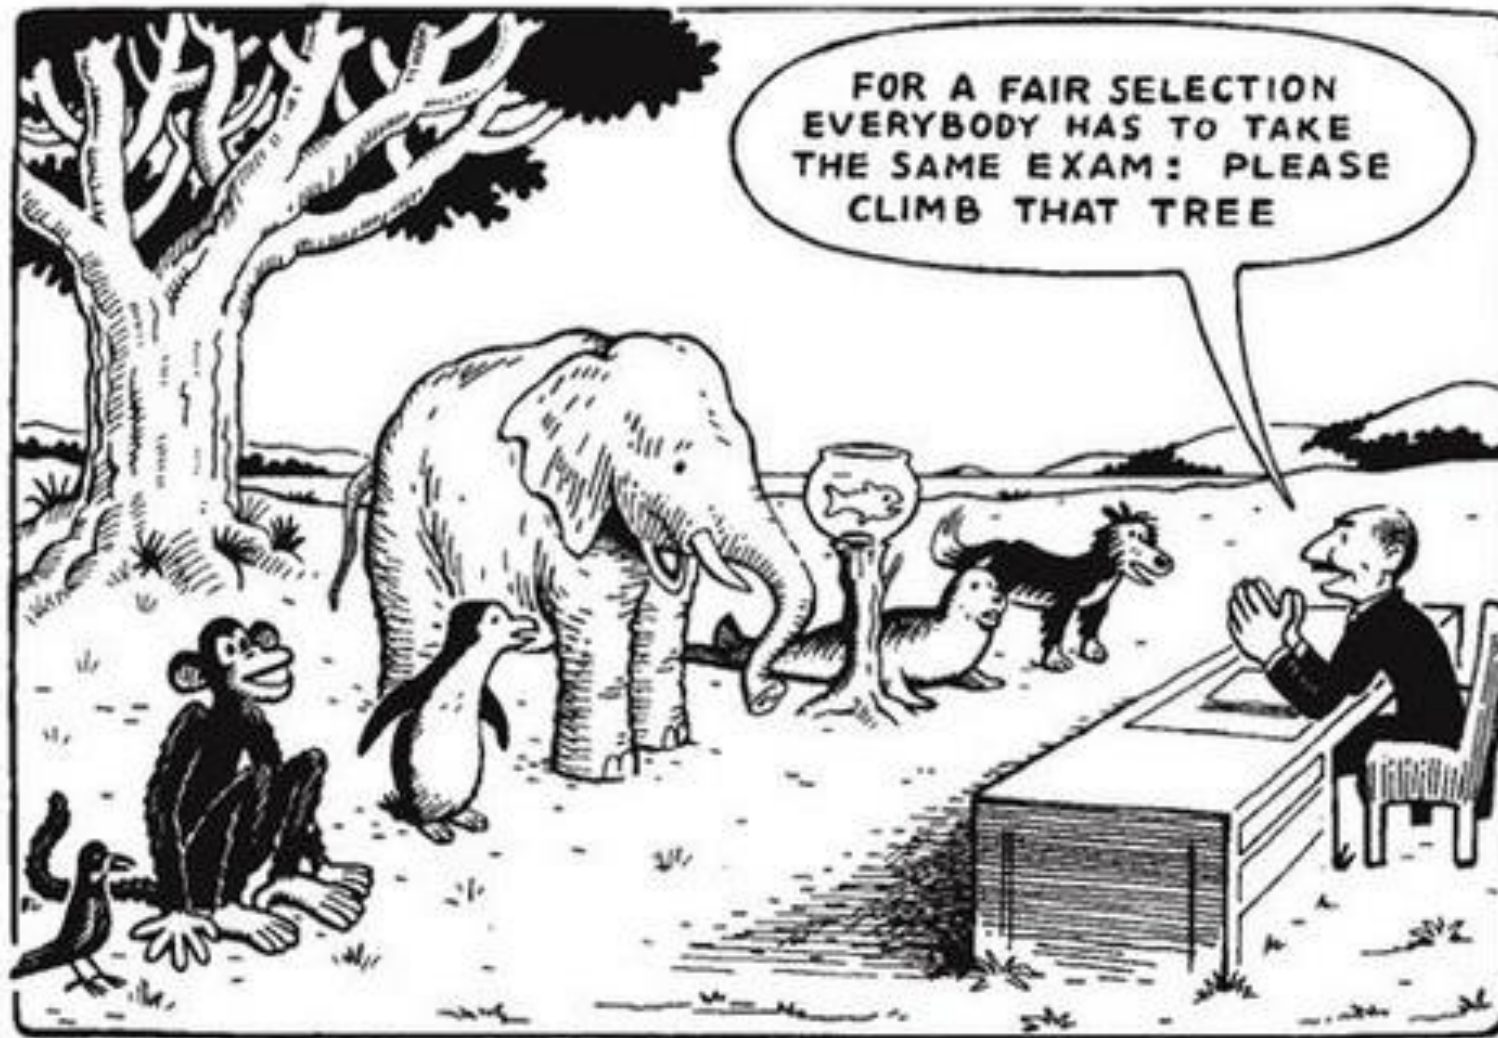

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t2XFh_tD2RA

Self Reflection

- What surprised you most from the video?
- What are some of the mindsets that need to be changed to promote equality?
- What are possible solutions to removing the barriers of inequality?
- What are some way that you have distributed and leveraged resources to support teaching and learning?

Reflection Protocol

Task	Time
Identify a timekeeper for your group.	1 Minutes
In Round Robin style, each participant uses up to one minute to share what surprised them most from the video.	5 Minutes
In Round Robin style, each participant uses up to one minute to share some of the mindsets that need to change in an effort to promote equality.	5 Minutes
In Round Robin style, each participant uses up to one minute to share possible solutions to removing the barriers of inequity.	5 Minutes
In Round Robin style, each participant uses up to one minute to share ways that they have distributed and leveraged resources to support teaching and learning.	5 Minutes
One member of the group shares with the larger group.	5 Minutes

Everybody is a genius. But if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree, it will live its whole life believing that it is stupid